About Fort Wayne Bible College

Fort Wayne Bible College is committed to a distinct philosophy of education. The revelation of God in Jesus Christ, in the Holy Scriptures and in nature is the integrating core around which its curriculum and instructional service has been organized and developed.

The college is a charter member of the Accrediting Association of Bible Colleges and accredited by the Indiana Department of Public Instruction as a teacher-training institution. Credits are validated by Indiana University, and graduates of degree programs are qualified and encouraged to study for higher earned degrees. Students may major in pre-seminary studies, Christian education, missions, missionary nursing, pastoral training, theology, elementary education and music.

The department of music offers a concentration in the following areas: voice, piano, organ, orchestral instruments, church music, theory and composition, and music education. Major performing organizations include the Chorale, Women's Chorus, Oratorio Chorus, Wind Ensemble, Brass Ensemble, and Chamber Ensemble.

About the Director

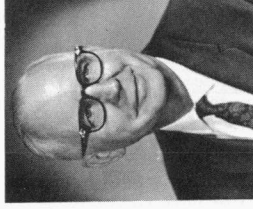

Mr. Jay D. Platte, director of the Chorale, the Oratorio Chorus and the Singing Collegians, is a junior studying toward the Bachelor of Music Education degree. Coming from Indianapolis, Mr. Platte traveled to Europe and Africa with a Youth for Christ Teen Team before coming to Fort Wayne Bible College. He was a member of the Ambassadors Quartet during his freshman and sophomore years, traveling from coast to coast during the summer of 1965. Two years ago he became director of the Singing Collegians who recently represented the college at the 8th International Congress of Youth for Christ in Jamaica. Mr. Platte has composed or arranged a number of hymns and gospel songs including one sung in this program.

About the Narrator

The Rev. J. Harlan Wright is Alumni Coordinator at Fort Wayne Bible College. He worked as machinist and draftsman at Caterpillar Tractor Company before coming to the college. He graduated in 1950 with the Bachelor of Sacred Music degree. Mr. Wright served in Missionary Church Association pastorates in Indiana and Ohio before joining the college in 1961 as field representative. In 1965 he became Alumni Coordinator. Mr. Wright serves as song leader and song evangelist in evangelistic campaigns, camps and conferences.

A Word From The President

Dr. Jared F. Gerig

It is a great joy to present the Fort Wayne Bible College Chorale to you today. The program they present is not intended to be merely a showcase of fine choral works. It is thoughtfully prepared in its design to reveal through song the person of Jesus Christ.

Members of the Chorale are some of the finest representatives of the college-age generation. All are thoroughly committed Christians who desire in all things to glorify God.

These young people are but a few of the 560 students who have come to Fort Wayne Bible College from across the nation and around the world representing some 40 denominations. They have come to prepare to be ambassadors for Christ.

We count it a privilege to share some of the spirit and blessing of Fort Wayne Bible College through the ministry of our musical groups. We will deeply appreciate your prayers for them and for us.

Sincerely in His service,

Jared F. Gerig
President, FWBC
